

WEB PRIVACY POLICY

CSIC PRIVACY POLICY

The CSIC is the entity responsible for the processing of data generated from personal data supplied by users of the portal www.csic.es.

In accordance with the European Data Protection Regulation 679/2016 (GDPR) and current national regulations, the CSIC is committed to fulfilling its obligation of confidentiality with respect to personal data and its duty to treat them confidentially. For these purposes, it will adopt the necessary measures to prevent their alteration, loss, processing or unauthorized access.

The purpose of the automated collection and processing of personal data is to manage, provide, expand and improve the services requested at any time by the user and to follow up on queries raised by them.

The user may exercise at any time the rights of access, rectification, cancellation, opposition, limitation or portability by contacting the General Secretariat of the CSIC at Calle Serrano 117 28006 Madrid (Spain) in writing, enclosing a photocopy of their ID, to the address indicated above or through the electronic registry of the CSIC located in its electronic headquarters, for which they must have a recognized electronic certificate.

In application of the GDPR, the CSIC has adopted and will adopt the necessary technical and organisational adaptation measures to guarantee the security of data processing after carrying out the corresponding risk analyses.

This privacy policy will be adapted to any legislative, jurisprudential or interpretative developments that need to be transmitted.

For any questions, please contact the CSIC Data Protection Officer: José López Calvo at delegadoprotecciondatos@csic.es.