

Dr. Sakellariou Nikolaos

PhD in Seismology, Department of Geology & Geoenvironment, NKUA. Participation in national and international research programs ("SEISMOPOLIS - Pilot System for Familiarizing and Informing the Public on Earthquake Matters", "Greco-Risks, Hellenic Natural Hazards Risk Management System of Systems", "SEISMO-EDUCATION", "NERIES - Contribution to the Euro - Mediterranean archive of historical Macroseismic data", "Integrated Early Warning & Seismic Risk Management System with application to Industrial Infrastructures"). Member of the working group in the NKUA research projects "Development of knowledge networks for dealing with the risks of earthquake disasters", "Strengthening of research infrastructures and prevention of earthquake disasters" and "Actions to inform the personnel of civil protection services and citizens" (2021-2023). Publications in international journals and participation in international scientific conferences. Co-assistance in the laboratories of the courses "Seismology", "Macroseismology" and "Lithospheric Plate Tectonics and Seismology of Greece" of the Department of Geophysics and Geothermal (Department of Geology & Geoenvironment, EKPA). Postdoctoral researcher at the Museo Nacional de Ciencias Naturales of the Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas (from November 2023).